Scripture Readings

Deuteronomy 5: 12-15

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

Luke 13:10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On a third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Notes from the Director of Music

A few weeks ago, the world lost one of its greatest church musicians. Sir David Willcocks was 95. He was born in New Quay, Cornwall in 1919 and because of his musical talents, was sent to Westminster Abbey where he was a boy chorister. He received a scholarship to go on to King's College where he studied organ. In addition to his musical talents, he was especially gifted at sports, especially squash. His studies were interrupted by the war years where he distinguished himself by becoming a Major at a young age and received for his actions, the Military Cross. After the war, he became a fellow at King's College and then went on to be organist at cathedrals in Salisbury and Worcester and then returned to King's College. He is best known as Musical Director of the famous Choir of King's College Cambridge from 1957-74. He was knighted in 1971 and received many honorary degrees including one from Trinity College, Toronto. Churches throughout the world have benefited from his arrangements of carols at Christmas time, and we are fortunately left with many beautiful recordings by choirs under his direction. In 2005, he came to Kingston to conduct a choir which included our own Bob and Dennis Clark. At that time, he signed his name to a copy of a new anthem which he had composed and from that copy, proudly owned by Bob and Dennis, we are singing today's Anthem.

The Anthem is based on the famous tune "Ein feste Burg" composed by Martin Luther (1483-1546). The words are by H.W. Baker (1821-1877) who provided many excellent hymns for many hymn books, as well as two devotional books: The Daily Text Book and one with the curious title Family Prayers for the Use of those who have to work hard.

Luther's famous tune is the basis for the Postlude which is a little fugue by Pachelbel (1653-1706), and the second Prelude by J.G. Walther (1684-1748). Both of these German composers were inspired by this great hymn of Martin Luther who wrote other fine hymns including "Aus tiefer Not schrei ich zu dir". An English translation of this hauntingly moving hymn goes: "Out of the depths I cry to you; O Father hear me calling. Incline your ear to my distress in spite of my rebelling. Do not regard my sinful deeds, send me the grace my spirit needs; Without it I am nothing." For the Offertory, the hymn is heard in its original form followed by an arrangement by another famous German composer, Samuel Scheidt (1587-1654). The first Prelude is also based on this tune and was composed by German composer Friedrich Wilhelm Zachau (1663-1712).

The Introit is taken from a group of hymns celebrating The Lord's Day found in the Presbyterian Book of Praise of 1904. The words are by Julia Elliott and the tune by the important editor and composer William Henry Monk (1823-1889).

Communion Clean Up - Help Needed

We are looking for two people to be our back-up for communion washing up? If anyone is interested please meet us in the kitchen after the service to see us in action and learn all that is involved.

Mission Projects

Louise Axford is reporting that our givings designated 'Mission' are ahead of the goals accepted at the congregational annual meeting in March. As a result, we are being asked to select three additional mission projects to support, should our offerings continue to be so strong. Using the ballot on the sheet found in St Andrew's Hall, share your preference by Wednesday, October 14 - only one ballot per person, however!

Inter-Church Refugee Sponsorship Fundraiser Concert

Questions for Candidates in the Federal Election.

Two resources are available that might assist Christians in discerning their participation in this autumn's election. Both packets are available online, and sample paper copies can be found in St. Andrew's Hall.

One is provided by the Canadian Council of Churches, sharing questions posed by various Canadian Christian coalitions:

The Way Ahead

This is the name of the seniors' computer centre here at St. Andrew's. The present co-ordinator, Peter Skelton, will be 'retiring' in November, and if this great community service is to continue, a new co-ordinator is needed. The co-ordinator does not need to be involved in the computer tutoring, but rather an ability to ensure publicity of the service and scheduling of tutors. If you have any interest personally, or a recommendation to offer, please speak to Andrew.

The Pastoral Care Committee

Is looking for help with visiting homebound members of the congregation on a regular basis. If this a ministry that interests you, contact Elaine Coderre for more information at 613-389-4813 or elainecoderre@hotmail.ca

Kingston Street Mission

We need additional dedicated, reliable and compassionate volunteers to be part of our outreach team. The mission is open from October 24th, 2015 through the end of April 2016. Hours are 7 nights a week from 8:00 p.m. to midnight. We are presently looking for volunteers for Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights to help ... provide a temporary warm and safe haven to escape the harsh winter weather – help to locate a warm place to stay at one of the local shelters, supply/serve hot drinks, soup, crackers, cookies and other special treats - provide warm supplies to help shelter those sleeping outside - offer friendly conversation with an ear to really hear what they say - offer caring and compassion with no judgement. Please have a look at the poster in St. Andrew's Hall and contact me ... Marilyn McLean Chair: Kingston Street Mission kingston.street.mission@gmail.com
