

The Worship of Lent @ St. Andrew's Online and In Sanctuary!

This month we will explore the various gospel accounts of the New Testament - each with a different perspective upon the earthly witness of Jesus, symbolized by a traditional image. The challenge is extended to read these gospels in advance of the Sunday morning. Elders will offer a personal audio 'reading' available on the church website the Monday before.

The Gospel According to Mark

Sunday March 6, 10:30 a.m.

Mark presents Jesus as something like a bounding, roaring lion! And we shall gather to celebrate the Lord's Supper.

The Gospel According to Matthew

Sunday March 13, 10:30 a.m.

Matthew focuses upon the human face of Jesus. Remember Daylight Savings - we 'spring forward' one hour!

The Gospel According to Luke

Sunday March 20, 10:30 a.m.

The witness of Jesus presented by Luke has often been imagined by the symbol of an ox, one of great power and a bearer of heavy burdens.

The Gospel According to John

Sunday March 27, 10:30 a.m.

And the image associated with John's testimony of Jesus is that of an eagle, the one who soars with a perspective over all history and humanity.
