Order of Worship

WELCOME TO ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday
October 18, 2015

Honour your father and mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. (Exodus 20:12)

A warm welcome in the name of Jesus Christ. and a special welcome to all visitors and friends with us this morning. Please join us for a potluck luncheon and refreshments including Fair Trade Coffee and a time of fellowship in St Andrew's Hall after the service and consider signing our visitors' pew cards or guest book by the Princess Street doors. Peggy Sue Reynolds is our certified caregiver for the nursery held just off St Andrew's Hall in the Polson Davis Room. Laura Tyner-Clement is our church school teacher.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Scripture Readings

Exodus 20:12

Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

Matthew 12:46-50

While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers were standing outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, 'Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.' But to the one who had told him this, Jesus replied, 'Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?' And pointing to his disciples, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.'

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Notes from the Director of Music

Our Anthem is an arrangement of what has become a very popular contemporary hymn. On Eagle's Wings is a paraphrase of Psalm 91 and was composed by Jan Michael Joncas in 1979. He was born in 1951 and while studying theology at the University Of Notre Dame, wrote this contemplative song for the funeral of a friend. He was ordained a Roman Catholic priest the following year and his song quickly became popular in Catholic churches. Later it was picked up by many Protestant churches and today appears in our Book of Praise #57. Both music and text were written by Fr. Jonas and part of his inspiration came from the Song of Moses,

Deuteronomy 32:11 "As an eagle stirs up its nest, and hovers over its young: as it spreads its wings, takes them up, and bears them aloft on its pinions."

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791) and Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827) both achieved greatness not just because of a natural inborn talent, but because of the nurturing and support of their mother and father. Much can be said about these two important composers, but the relationship with their parents was important. Both were the offspring of very musical fathers and of caring and loving mothers. They did a fair amount of traveling in their youth which meant the need for considerable support from their parents.

Mozart remained close to his father throughout his life whereas Beethoven's father was much more strict, demanding and sometimes cruel, and young Ludwig depended more on his mother for love and encouragement. Mozart was an amazing prodigy and music came easily to him. For Beethoven, composing was a struggle as were many aspects of his life and we often hear these hardships and deep emotions expressed in his music. His music and that of Mozart can also express touches of humour and a great spiritual sense. Both Mozart and Beethoven were organists for a time and although they composed liturgical music, they composed very little for organ. They were both inspired to write largely for voice and orchestral instruments of all kinds and both composed a significant amount for a relatively new instrument called the piano-forte. The Offertory is taken from one of Beethoven's famous piano sonatas and the Prelude from one of Mozart's piano sonatas. The Postlude is an organ arrangement from the motet Exultate Jubilate written for solo voice. During the run of one of his operas in Milan, Mozart heard the voice of a male soprano Venanzio Rauzzini who inspired Mozart to write for him this uplifting work of Praise.

Flowers this morning...

The flowers at the front of the church this morning have been placed in fond memory of Lois Constance Hackett (Watson). Lois was a long-time member of St. Andrew's who passed away on October 18, 2012. Lois taught Sunday school and worked in the nursery for over 15 years. She also was a regular volunteer at the Sunday night special meals program. As well she delivered the Sunday after church flowers to the local hospitals and shut-ins. Lois was a kind and thoughtful wife, mother, grandmother and mother in law. We the family love and miss Lois so much. Her granddaughter Emily Rose Hackett will sing one of her favourite hymns in loving memory of her.

Today...

Congregational Lunch

After the service this morning, all are invited to stay for a congregational lunch in St. Andrew's Hall. Between the main course and dessert, we will hear a few words about HomeBaseHousing from Colleen McAlister-Lacombe, Program Manager, which we support through the 'mission' line on our weekly envelopes.

Congregational Discussion Sheets

Two Sundays ago, we dedicated some time to consider the witness of St. Andrew's, and the particular opportunities for ministry in downtown Kingston. A brief compilation of comments shared at the discussion tables is available for reflection. And additional thoughts would be welcome - please place them in the comment box in St. Andrew's Hall. Our next congregational discussions will be held November 1 and 29, with a formal meeting scheduled for December 13.

Elders' Visits

The elders of St. Andrew's would like to visit members and adherents of the congregation over the coming months. No issue or 'ask', just a gesture of pastoral care in Christian fellowship. When an elder calls to set up a visit, either at home or a coffee shop, we hope you can welcome us! Donna Delacretaz, Clerk of Session

Women's Missionary Society

The WMS will meet in St. Andrew's Hall on October 19th at 1:30pm. Please bring your September-October Glad Tidings. We will be finding out about the Maya-Mam women of Guatemala and hearing the latest news from our missionaries in the Cariboo.

This Week...

Community Feast

The Katarokwi Grandmothers' Council and KAIROS are together hosting a Community Feast this Wednesday, October 21, 5:30 p.m. at Crossroads United Church, 690 Sir John A. Macdonald. This will be an opportunity for church circles to gather with First Nations neighbours for a traditional meal of corn soup, bannock, wild rice and stew, and take up the journey of Healing and Reconciliation. See the poster in St. Andrew's Hall. RSVP to Andrew at kingstonfeast@gmail.com. And if you would be willing to help out on the evening, by setting up, greeting folks or serving, please mention that also!

The Reformation @ 500

Presbyterian College Montreal and the PCC Committee on History are offering live attendance via the internet of a two day seminar Sola Scriptura (Scripture Alone) on Friday, October 30 and Saturday, October 31. See details www.presbyteriancollege.ca

Reception of New Members

If you feel that this congregation might be a people with whom you can grow in Christian faith, fellowship and service, you would be welcome! Sunday, November 15, 10:30 a.m. For further information, speak to the Minister or Donna Delacretaz, Clerk of Session.

Glad Tidings

Do you want to hear stories of our Presbyterian mission staff and Presbyterians across Canada and around the world? Glad Tidings, the magazine of the Women's Missionary Society contains articles and reports that inform the entire denomination about mission. Consider a subscription, $16.95 (tax included) for 6 issues in 2016. Available in regular and large print and on CD. Contact Helen Ledford. Sunday October 25, 6 p.m. We had a great group at our first meeting, and are making this a monthly gathering. An informal home-cooked dinner and a Bible study. Contact Andrew for details – a.johnston@standrewskingston.org

Scripture Union

Subscribers are reminded that renewal orders for 2016 are now due.

Advance Notice ...

St. Andrew's Autumn Study Series

A new generation of pastors and theologians explore foundational Christian themes in ways that spark discussion:
God (Faith is a Quest),
Religion (Spirituality is not enough), Jesus (The Revolution of Love),
Salvation (Abundant life now),
Cross (Where God is),
Bible (A book like no other),
Church (An imperfect family).

Join the Minister

Tuesday evenings, St. Andrew's Hall
October 27 – December 1
7 - 8:30 p.m.

Sanctuary Information Session

The Property and Maintenance committee has been busy preparing an inventory of the physical needs of the sanctuary. Come to an information session, this morning after the service. This will be a brief session, but the foundation for a series of congregational discussions about the options for our future ministry with respect to this building. These discussions will be held after the services of November 1, 29, with a formal congregational meeting scheduled for December 13.

Opportunities to Serve...

Nursery Need!

St. Andrews is in need of volunteers to take charge in the nursery when Peggy Sue is unable to attend. If you might be willing to step into the role on a Sunday morning that you are at St. Andrew's, please advise Rory Warnock at rwarnock@universalgrp.ca. We are seeking a roster of members who might be called upon occasionally and as available. Thank you.

The Way Ahead

This is the name of the seniors' computer centre here at St. Andrew's. The present co-ordinator, Peter Skelton, will be 'retiring' in November, and if this great community service is to continue, a new co-ordinator is needed. The co-ordinator does not need to be involved in the computer tutoring, but rather an ability to ensure publicity of the service and scheduling of tutors. If you have any interest personally, or a recommendation to offer, please speak to Andrew.

The Pastoral Care Committee

Is looking for help with visiting homebound members of the congregation on a regular basis. If this a ministry that interests you, contact Elaine Coderre for more information at 613-389-4813 or elainecoderre@hotmail.ca

Kingston Street Mission

We need additional dedicated, reliable and compassionate volunteers to be part of our outreach team. The mission is open from October 24th, 2015 through the end of April 2016. Hours are 7 nights a week from 8:00 p.m. to midnight. We are presently looking for volunteers for Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights to help ... provide a temporary warm and safe haven to escape the harsh winter weather – help to locate a warm place to stay at one of the local shelters, supply/serve hot drinks, soup, crackers, cookies and other special treats - provide warm supplies to help shelter those sleeping outside - offer friendly conversation with an ear to really hear what they say - offer caring and compassion with no judgement. Please have a look at the poster in St. Andrew's Hall and contact me ... Marilyn McLean
