

Sunday Worship

With a new congregational year, we will explore how our daily lives might include deeper spiritual dimensions.

Resting

Sunday September 9, 10:30 a.m.
Our society highlights individual achievement and responsibility, even unto anxiety and exhaustion. Resting ... in the promises and work of God ... is a radical exercise. This morning we celebrate the Lord's Supper, and remember all that God has done for us in Jesus Christ.

Listening

Sunday September 16, 10:30 a.m.
Many voices clamour for our attention. It is not enough to 'hear' what God has to say. The voice from heaven declared of Jesus, 'Listen to him' (Mark 9:7). Listening is a spiritual discipline.

College Sunday

Sunday September 23, 10:30 a.m.
This morning we welcome the Rev. Oliver Kondeh Ndula, a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Cameroons, who will bring greetings from the Presbyterian College, Montréal. And after the service, our monthly congregational potluck!

Laughing

Sunday September 30, 10:30 a.m.
The sermon will consider how laughter can be a spiritual exercise, freeing us from taking ourselves too seriously, freeing us to consider God.
And Rebecca Wytmsa will share her experience of Canada Youth 2018.

Prayers for the Month

God of wholeness,
you have created us bodily,
that our work and faith may be one.
May we offer our worship
from lives of integrity;
and maintain the fabric of this world
with hearts that are set on you,
through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Janet Morley (contemporary)

Grant to us, O Lord, the royalty of inward happiness, and the serenity which comes from living close to thee. Daily renew in us the sense of joy, and let the eternal spirit of the Father dwell in our souls and bodies, filling every corner of our hearts with light and grace; so that, bearing about with us the infection of good courage, we may be diffusers of life, and may meet all ills and cross accidents with gallant and high-hearted happiness, giving thee thanks always for all things.

Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-94)
