The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise God, all creatures here below:
Praise God above ye heavenly hosts,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Scripture Readings

Leviticus 19: 1-2

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy.

Ephesians 1:1-2

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Hebrews 12:14, 18, 22-24a

Pursue peace with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord...

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest... But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant...

NOTES FROM DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

I don't think he meant it to be, but some of the organ music of César Franck is downright scary. With the title "Pièce Héroïque" the Prelude would seem suitable for All Saints Day and Remembrance Day, but the beginning of the piece sure sounds appropriate for Hallow'en. Perhaps Franck was trying to describe one man's struggles, and the music becomes suddenly triumphant at the end. So the piece may be appropriate for three Sundays in a row (I am only playing it once). While his contemporary, Claude Debussy, represented a new lighter style called Impressionism, Franck's music was an old style heavy Romanticism, not fully accepted in his time. After some excellent training, he threw himself deeply and devotedly into sacred music. His Panis Angelicus which is the Offertory, is a well-known example. The Postlude is an example of many of his fine works for organ which continue to be enjoyed today. He was privileged to play on one of the finest organs in the world at the basilica of Ste. Clotilde in Paris. The church was named after a young lady who married a king in the 5th century, convinced him to convert to Christianity and then helped spread the message of Christ to Western Europe. Franck himself was described as a saint, though not venerated as such. According to the Oxford companion to music, “The life of Franck was that of a saint-but as a ‘cheerful’ saint, always cracking with wit and repartee. He lived simply, and set aside a period every day for quiet meditation.”

This Sunday we remember all the saints who have served in Christ’s name. A beautiful hymn by Isaac Watts (1674-1748) is our Introit: “Give me the wings of faith, to rise within the veil, and see the saints above, how great their joys, how bright their glories be.”

The Anthem is a rather gentle reminder of what Communion is all about. It was composed by American church musician Dale Wood (1934-2003) who in his hard work and sacrifice as musician, composer and editor, spreading the message through his sincere music, we can certainly acknowledge as one of the Saints.

Prayer for All Saints Sunday

For all the saints

who went before us, who have spoken to our hearts and touched us with your fire, we praise you, O God.

For all the saints

who live beside us, whose weaknesses and strengths are woven with our own, we praise you, O God.

For all the saints

who live beyond us, who challenge us to change the world with them, we praise you, O God.

Janet Morley

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome

A warm welcome to all this morning in the name of Jesus Christ. During this service, there is a nursery offered for infants, hosted by certified care Tran Thao Dinh, and a program for children led by Laura Tyner-Clement – please speak to an usher for information if interested. The first Sunday of each month we celebrate the Lord's Supper – the invitation is extended to 'all who love the Lord a little and yearn to love him more'. Immediately after the service, please join us for refreshments in St. Andrew's Hall and allow us the opportunity to introduce ourselves.

Prayer Partnership

If you would like to have a time of personal prayer after the service, you are invited to meet a member of the prayer team at the pillar just to the right of the pulpit. And please pass prayer requests to be shared on the congregational autumn prayer card to Dorothy M. or Barb Z.

Autumn Tuesday Study Evenings Continue

Join us this Tuesday - 'Short Stories by Jesus – The Enigmatic Parables of a Controversial Rabbi', a DVD resource for group discussion on the parables, led by the Minister. What makes this study particularly interesting are the insights of Amy-Jill Levine, a renowned Jewish professor of New Testament studies at Vanderbilt University Divinity School. Join us this Tuesday for our 3rd study evening – focusing on the pearl of great price. Each evening is independent!

Handbell Ringers

Wednesday November 7th 6:30pm ~ 8:30 pm ~ Interested in joining a ringing choir? St. Andrew's Hall. We are preparing a couple of 'airs' for the St. Andrew's Day social on November 30th. Contact John Hall for information 613-354-5066 johnhall@canadianpianos.ca

Chapel Services

Each month our Minister conducts short services at Rideaucrest and The Royale (wonderfully accompanied on the piano by David S./Michael P.). If you would be willing to assist by greeting the residents with Christian care (and perhaps even supporting the singing of favourite hymns!), please speak to Andrew.

The services are held at Rideaucrest the second Sunday, 2 p.m.; and at The Royale the second Tuesday, 11 a.m.

Bells of Peace

On November 11, at the going down of the sun, St. Andrew's will join churches and communities across Canada to mark the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War with the ringing of bells 100 times. This ringing emulates the moment in 1918 when church bells across Europe tolled as four years of war had come to an end.

If you would like to take a turn in ringing the bells of St. Andrew's at sunset on November 11, please sign on the bulletin board so John Hall can organize this. Note: this involves climbing the bell tower stairs!

Morning Bible Study

Thursday November 15, 10 – 11:30 a.m. An opportunity to gather with the Minister and others to read through the story of Joseph. We have some great discussions! No previous experience of the Bible needed. Polson Davis Room.

Glad Tidings Renewal

Be challenged and inspired. Learn more about Missions. Subscribe to "Glad Tidings" and hear stories of our Presbyterian mission staff and Presbyterians across Canada and around the world. Consider a subscription, $22.60 for 6 issues in 2019, due Nov 11th. Available in regular print, large print and audio CD. Contact Helen L.

Membership

If you are wishing to make St. Andrew's your church home, you would be welcome! Please speak to the minister or any elder by November 11 for information.

Ushers - This morning - Elders

Nov. 11 Elaine & Pat C., Helene & Michael P.

Offering Update

Weekly Giving's	Budgeted	Received

Presbyterian World Service & Development

Caring for creation in Calgary

The youth at Grace Presbyterian Church in Calgary are bettering the health of their local community while also supporting the well-being of the global community. Members of the congregation donated to PWS&D in support of the teens' efforts to pick up litter, rake and sweep around the church's property. In the end, the group collected five large bags of garbage and raised $932 for PWS&D. "We were encouraged by our faith in Christ's love to share our gifts with the world," shares Roberto DeSandoli, young adult ministry coordinator at Grace. Across Canada, Presbyterians are stewards of the blessings of God—sharing our gifts to build a more sustainable, compassionate and just world. Faithful to our calling, we respond together. This year, through offerings designated "Mission," members of St. Andrew's Kingston have a goal of contributing $3,700 to the work of Christ through PWS&D.

The flowers at the front of the church this morning have been provided with love by David and Alberta Saunders.
