Introduction

Lost Pilgrims

No one can measure your greatness ...

I will exalt you, my God and King, and praise your name forever and ever. I will praise you every day, yes, I will praise you forever. Great is the Lord! You are most worthy of praise! No one can measure your greatness. Let each generation tell its children of your mighty acts, let them proclaim your power. I will meditate on your majestic, glorious splendor and your wonderful miracles. Your awe-inspiring deeds will be on every tongue; I will proclaim your greatness. Everyone will share the story of your wonderful goodness; they will sing with joy about your righteousness. – Psalm 145: 1-7

Elders

The flowers this Sunday have been placed by Ralph and Wendy to give thanks for Spring.

Welcome

A warm welcome to all this morning in the name of Jesus Christ. During this service, there is a nursery offered for infants, hosted by certified care Tran Thao Dinh, and a program for children led by Laura Tyner-Clement—please speak to an usher for information if interested.

A special welcome to the Lost Pilgrims who will be conducting the service and preaching this morning. The Lost Pilgrims are a group of Presbyterians who have been playing music together for enjoyment for over 15 years. The members of the band are Ian MacCready, Scott Cooper, the Rev. Dr. Hugh Donnelly, David Linderman, and the Rev. Stephen Kendall.

For your Reading Pleasure

Be sure to pick up a copy of the Spring 2019 editions of the Burning Bush and the Presbyterian Connection.

Lenten Devotions

Check out these resources in St. Andrew's Hall and consider picking up a copy of a) Sermon on the Mount b) The Saving Passion.

Property & Maintenance

We will be holding an outside spring cleanup & an inside kitchen cleanup on Saturday May 4th from 9am to 2pm. Bring your gloves and tools and help us beautify our property inside and out. Reminder: the back door to the church will be left unlocked before Sunday Services for anyone parking in the lot near the laundromat.

Lenten Bible Study

The last session of this study series, led by Dr. Morrow, will be on Wednesday, April 10, 7-9 p.m. at St. James Anglican Church. It will be an exploration of the scripture passage highlighted in Dr. Morrow's sermon last Sunday focusing on Ruth. The sermon has been posted on the St. James website at: <https://stjameskingston.ca>.

Holy Communion

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. As the choir process down the aisles, we will remember Jesus entering Jerusalem as Holy Week begins and we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Good Friday Service

April 19, 10:30 am Sydenham St United Church. Join with Lutheran Presbyterian United congregations for a combined service on this Holy day. Our theme this year is "Jesus Remember Me" featuring a combined choir.

Sunday, April 21

Last year we invited anyone who would like to bring a spring plant to church as a celebration of Easter. The flowers were placed at the front of the sanctuary and created a beautiful array of colour. After the service the donor took the plant home to enjoy or passed it on to someone else. We have had requests to repeat this activity and hope you might choose to help us.

Sanctuary Flowers

If you would be willing to provide flowers or plants for our worship, please sign up on the congregational bulletin board or speak to Wendy W.

Mission Thrift Store

Mission Thrift Store accepts community donations and sells the used goods to the public. All funds are sent to Bible League Canada and are used to share the Gospel in many countries of the world. The organization is in need of volunteers & board members. Contact Gord Mitchell at 613-531-7852, or visit the store at 2455 Princess Street.

Prayer Partnership

If you would like to have a time of personal prayer after the service, you are invited to meet a member of the prayer team at the pillar just to the right of the pulpit. Please be conscious of the need for quiet near the prayer corner. Please pass prayer requests to be shared to Dorothy M. or Barb Z.

SHORT-TERM MISSION TRIPS

The Presbyterian Church In Canada's Global Mission program has been designed to allow congregations and individuals to accompany Presbyterian mission partners through short-term mission experiences. As participants share in the mission of the church they will serve others, enhance their personal growth, learn skills and grow in faith.

Short-term mission trips this year include: Israel/ Palestine; Healing and Reconciliation Tour; and the Palestinian Territories. This May, our own Comfort Ansah will be participating in a Youth in Mission Trip to Guatemala, with the support of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the Presbytery of Kingston, and St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

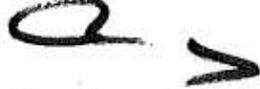

Farewell

To My St. Andrew's Church Family

It is with mixed emotions that I say farewell for a few years, as I relocate to Victoria to take on a new position with the Heart & Stroke Foundation on Vancouver Island.

You welcomed me when I was most in need of Christian support following the death of Esther, and I want you to know how much I value and appreciate your support.

Thank you... very much. I look forward to joining you again in the future.
