

The Sundays of Summer

The Peace Tower ...

Sunday, June 30, 10:30 a.m.
As the flag that flew over Parliament on November 30, 2018 is unfurled in the sanctuary (it is huge!), we will thank God for our nation, and consider the peace that is ours in Christ (Ephesians 2:14).

Music and Faith

Sunday July 7, 10:30 a.m.
Our Director of Music John Hall will lead worship on both sides of the keyboard this morning, playing the organ and also sharing reflections on 'The Art of Listening'. Our Elders will lead in prayer.

Who Is My Neighbour?

Sunday July 14, 10:30 a.m.
The Rev. Nancy Hancock returns to lead us into the presence and calling of God with a focus upon Jesus' parable of The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

As we continue to gather at the beginning of each week in praise of God, we will explore the wonderful scenes of the Bible told in the stained glass windows of our sanctuary.

The Ten Commandments

Sunday July 21, 10:30 a.m.
Have you noticed the window of the two stone tablets in the sanctuary? We will look through it to consider the relevance of the Decalogue (Exodus 20:1-17)

Mary and Martha

Sunday July 28, 10:30 a.m.
A scene surrounded by a border of exotic pomegranates, a scene filled with commitment and teaching (Luke 10:38-42)

The Good Shepherd

Sunday August 4, 10:30 a.m.
A classic biblical image with which to describe the compassionate and strong care of Christ (John 10).

The Young Man

Sunday August 11, 10:30 a.m.
'Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?' Jesus answers his question, but it is not what was expected ... (Matthew 19:16-22).

A Healing by the Beautiful Gate

Sunday August 18, 10:30 a.m.
And Peter said 'I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you' (Acts 3:1-16)
A window dedicated in memory of one of the first Elders of St. Andrew's, John Mowat, father of Oliver Mowat, one of founders of Confederation.

The Parable of the Sower

Sunday August 25, 10:30 a.m.
Jesus said 'The seed is the Word of God' (Luke 8: 4-15), and this window portrays Jesus himself as the sower. Can you find it in the sanctuary?

Behold, I Stand at the Door and Knock

Sunday September 1, 10:30 a.m.
How appropriate that this window is found not on a wall but in a door! (Revelation 3:14-22)

You are my Son, the Beloved

September 8, 10:30 a.m.
As we begin a new congregational year, we consider the baptism of Jesus described in scripture and glass, and our baptisms in Jesus (Mark 1:9-11).

The Little Children

September 15, 10:30 a.m.
As children return to school, we look at a panel of glass and ponder the words of Jesus 'it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs' (Matthew 19:13-15).

Also this Summer ...

The Goal is Glory

‘What must I do to have eternal life?’

Blessed are you, O God,
Creator of the universe,
who have made all things good
and given the earth for us to cultivate.
Grant that we may always use created things gratefully, and share your gifts with all in need.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1806-61

It would have been enough
if You had simply given life to us,
O Genesis of Our Being,
but You also gave us
meaning and liberty and love.
How shall we respond to such an outpouring of blessing,
except to give back life for Life,
and love for unending Love. Amen.

Miriam Therest Winter, 1991
