The church year concludes this morning with what is often called 'Christ the King' Sunday. We will have before us a passage of Jesus 'ruling' the waves (Mark 4:35-41), symbolic of his cosmic sovereignty. And we will thank God for the witness of the Women's Missionary Society.

Pondering and Praying ...

To know and to serve God, of course, is why we're here, a clear truth that, like the nose on your face, is near at hand and easily discernible but can make you dizzy if you try to focus on it hard. But a little faith will see you through.

What else will do except faith in such a cynical, corrupt, time? When the country goes temporarily to the dogs, cats must learn to be circumspect, walk on fences, sleep in trees, and have faith that all this woofing is not the last word.
Garrison Keillor,
American humourist

Watch now, dear Lord, with those who wake or watch or weep tonight, and give your angles charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ, rest your wary ones, bless your dying ones, soothe your suffering ones, pity your afflicted ones, shield your joyous ones, and all for your love's sake. (Augustine, 4thC Africa) And now may the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing that we may abound in hope in the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 15:13)
