The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise God, all creatures here below:
Praise God above ye heavenly hosts,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Mark 6:30-44

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.' But he answered them, 'You give them something to eat.' They said to him, 'Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?' And he said to them, 'How many loaves have you? Go and see.' When they had found out, they said, 'Five, and two fish.' Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.

NOTES FROM DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Andrew Donaldson was born in 1951 and grew up in Northern Ontario. With a natural musical talent, he played guitar and went on to graduate from the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. In 1996, along with Donald Anderson (could two names be more confusing!), he became co-editor of our Book of Praise. As author, composer and arranger he contributed to more hymns than anyone in the book. The text of today's Introit is by this talented church musician.

Another major contributor to church music in Canada is Judith Snowdon. Judith hails from Moncton New Brunswick where she has been active with workshops as well as composing anthems and teaching. The words and music of the Anthem are by her.

The second Prelude and the Postlude are by the great François Couperin (1668-1733) whose organ music is based upon the various sections of the Catholic Communion service.

I wanted to return to the music of Alexandre Guilmant (1837-1911) whose music I presented a couple of weeks ago. I find his music quite sincere and approachable and I referred back to a collection of his organ music to find one of his pieces entitled Communion No.1 to play for a Prelude today. In the index I found two pieces entitled 'Quasimodo'. Of course I immediately thought of the protagonist in Victor Hugo's novel, the Hunchback of Notre Dame. As a bell ringer, I have sometimes referred to myself by that name in jest. The name comes from the name for the Sunday after Easter where the Introit for the day begins with the Latin words: "Quasi modo geniti infantes..." which literally means "Like just-born infants....". The plainsong melody for this text is the basis for today's Offertory. Guilmant did in fact play in Notre Dame Cathedral. His father had been an organ builder and Alexandre had a close relationship with one of the greatest organ builders in the world – Aristide Cavallé-Col. One of his best instruments was at Guilmant's church, La Trinité in Paris. While Guilmant was on tour in America, church officials hired another organ builder to do work on the organ. When he returned, Guilmant was so upset that he left; taking an interim post at Notre Dame where it was likely he composed his pieces entitled "Quasimodo". It should be known that we have no bell ringers by the name Quasimodo at St. Andrew's at the moment.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome

A warm welcome to all this morning in the name of Jesus Christ. Children are welcome to remain in the sanctuary during the service, but there is also offered a nursery for infants, hosted by certified care giver Tran Thao Dinh, and a program for young children, led by Laura Tyner-Clement – please speak to an usher for information if you are interested. There are hearing-assist devices available – just ask one of the ushers – and an accessible washroom available right by the entry to St. Andrew's Hall. After the service, we invite you to linger and allow us to introduce ourselves over a cup of tea or coffee.

Prayer Partnership

If you would like to have a time of personal prayer after the service, you are invited to meet a member of the prayer team at the pillar just to the left of the pulpit. Prayer team members are Dorothy M. David S. Dennis T. and Barb Z.
