

Sunday Worship ...

We will be streaming live each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. - join either in the sanctuary or online through the link posted at www.standrewskingston.org

The Lord's Supper

Sunday November 1

As we explore the Lord's Prayer, we pause to consider the dynamics of praying for others. And we celebrate the Holy Communion together.

'Deliver us from evil'

Sunday November 8

In silence, we remember the suffering of war. In a time of prayer, we commit ourselves to the ways of peace.

'Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory'

Sunday November 15

Not all ancient versions of the Lord's Prayer conclude with these words, but is an ascription of praise of God not always right and good?

Restorative Justice

Sunday November 22

We welcome to the pulpit this morning the Rev. Dr. Paul Kern, to share some of his experience and witness as a chaplain at Collins Bay Institution.

Advent 1

Sunday November 29

As a new church year begins, in the midst of the encroaching darkness, we light the candle of 'Hope'.

Study and Growth ...

DVD and Discussion (Zoom)

The Tuesday evenings of November continue this year, online. See the back panel for details of our autumn 2020 series. This is a great opportunity to ponder and perhaps understand better what it means to be a Christian today.

Imago Dei

Thursday November 5, 4:30 p.m.

An hour of contemplative reading, prayer & community in Christ. Led by Dorothy Messenger. All welcome. For details, dotmessenger@gmail.com

Congregational Fellowship (Zoom)

Monday November 16, 2:30 p.m.

Marilyn Trudeau is hosting a time for St. Andreans to get together. The focus this month is on sharing times when we have recently experienced joy and goodness - something read or heard, something understood or done. Send Marilyn an email to receive the link marilyntrudeau@hotmail.com

Morning Bible Study (Zoom)

Thursday November 26, 10:30-11:30

An opportunity to gather with the minister and others to read through the Sermon on the Mount. We have some great discussions! No previous experience of the Bible needed. Send Andrew an email for the link, a.johnston@standrewskingston.org

A Prayer of Reflection ...

O God,
I have learned a lot since (I have begun to reflect upon my life).

I have learned the uncertainty of life,
that we cannot tell what a day will bring.
I have learned the weakness of life,
that I am a frail creature at the best.
I have learned that I am not indispensable,
that life gets on well enough without me
which is both humiliating and comforting.

I have learned a lot about you.
I have learned to see your hand
when things go badly
just as much as when they go well;
that the shadows are yours just as much as the sunshine.
I have learned that the more I need you,
the more you are there.

I know now that you do work all things together for good,
and that you do love me
with an everlasting love.

I too can say:
'All the way the Lord has helped us'
I Samuel 7:12

A prayer by William Barclay (1907-1978),
a popular Scottish Presbyterian Bible scholar, teacher and preacher

Autumn Tuesday Evenings

Each of the four Tuesday evenings of November, you are invited to join others on Zoom for a series of short DVD episodes that introduce the themes of Brian McLaren's recent book

The Great Spiritual Migration: How the World's Largest Religion is Seeking a Better Way to be Christian

The Christian story, from Genesis until now, is about people on the move - outgrowing inherited religious systems and embracing new, more redemptive ways of life. We are on the move again.

Spiritually

(less a system of beliefs
and more a way of life)

Theologically

(less on judgement by a Supreme Being and more on a renewing Spirit at work in the world)

Missionally

(less of organized religion and more of Jesus' followers organizing to heal the planet, contribute to peace and the common good)
