The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live...
The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;

and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 17:12-15

While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

On this Trinity Sunday, the Anthem seems to be, but is not really about, the Trinity. Frankly, there are not that many anthems specific to the Holy Trinity. The opening hymn is quite solidly about the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, but the Anthem, although it has the same name, is a setting of the Sanctus from Schubert's famous German Mass. It can be found in our Book of Praise #623.

As I was selecting the organ music for today, I felt in a "key of G" mood (whatever that is) and so selected Preludes by François Couperin and J.S. Bach, both composed in this happy key. Couperin's piece comes from one of his masses for organ. Bach's prelude is based on the chorale translated as "All Glory be to God on High". The relative minor key of G is e, also written with one sharp in the key signature. Most of Bach's Preludes and Fugues are too long to be played for a service but the one in e minor is mercifully short and works well for a Postlude.

~Anthem~

Holy, holy, holy, God almighty, Lord!
Holy, holy, holy, everywhere adored!
God without beginning, God, eternal One reigns and rules forever all beneath the son Power and love and wonder circling round God's throne, praise our God most holy,
Lord of life alone.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome

This morning we extend a warm welcome to The Rev. Dr. Malcolm Sinclair. Malcolm is the Minister Emeritus of Metropolitan United Church in Toronto. Now retired, he was the preacher there for thirty years. He is proud of his Scottish roots and has preached there often, in such places as Edinburgh, Thurso, Wick, Roslin Chapel, and at a Sunday morning service in Iona Abbey. A singer and entertainer, he has celebrated Robert Burns, and all things Scottish, in concerts over forty-six seasons. Malcolm and his wife Elspeth have a seasonal home on the Long Reach, south of Napanee, and have been happy in the area for over twenty years.

Congregational meeting

A congregational meeting has been called following the service on Sunday, June 19, to receive information about the reviewed 2021 financial statements, to be provided with an update from the Trustees, and to consider other business as outlined in the agenda, including an invitation to sponsor a ministerial student. Financial statements, trustees report and agenda will be distributed as soon as possible.

After Church Fellowship Time

As we are adjusting to the “new normal” that guides our social interactions, we are once again serving refreshments in St. Andrew’s Hall following the service. Please join us whenever you feel comfortable to do so. You can always grab a beverage and socialize on the church lawn.

Manse Community Support Group

Thank you to Al and Susanne who provided the May 29th supper to the Manse residents. Dorothy and Kim have offered to provide the June 26th supper. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Nancy Hancock at 613-546-4951 or Anne-Marie Gabrini at 613-766-7226.

Mid-Week Worship

Wednesday June 22, 7:30 p.m. A time of song and prayer in the tradition of the Taizé community. Led by Susanne and Wendy.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82464811989>

ALSO

Fish Fry Fundraiser

Sunday, June 19, 4:30 - 7:00 at St. John’s Presbyterian, 2360 Middle Rd. Tickets are $15.00 and must be purchased in advance. The food will be “to-go”, but there will be some tents set up for folks to stay, eat and visit. Contact: Gail Collett 613-542-0997 or Dorothy Higgs 613-548-8378.

WAYS TO CONTRIBUTE AND REACH OUT

Flowers in the Sanctuary

If you would like to contribute flowers (or plants) for a Sunday between May and August, please contact Wendy for details at:

MISSION MOMENT

In the aftermath of a devastating earthquake that struck Haiti in August 2021, Presbyterian World Service & Development responded through the ACT Alliance. The emergency response supported 400 families in rebuilding their homes. This response was modelled after successful rebuilding projects following Hurricane Matthew in 2016. In addition, non-food items, including shelter and hygiene kits, were provided for 1,500 families, nutritious food for 1,300 families and agricultural support and supplies for 500 farmers. Community leaders and local volunteers also learned about community-based humanitarian action when confronting a crisis. This knowledge sharing is meant to ensure that when future disasters happen, communities will know how to implement an effective response.

In 2022, through offerings designated “Mission”, members of St. Andrew’s Kingston have a goal of contributing $5,340 to the work of Christ through PWS&D
