The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day, he rose again;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving (Responsive)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, our duty and our joy, to give you thanks and praise, God Almighty... (minister continues the prayer) ...Therefore, with your people from all places and times, and with the whole creation, we proclaim your greatness and sing your praises:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy God, blessed is your Son, Jesus Christ...(minister continues the prayer)...we take this bread and this cup, and proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ has risen, Christ will come again.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us...

Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked,

‘Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.’

All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’ But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them:

'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,

before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved"

Responsive Psalm 104:24-34, 35b

O Lord, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand,
and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.

May your glory, O Lord, endure for ever;
may you rejoice in all your works;

you look at the earth and it trembles;
you touch the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will praise my God while I have my being.

May these words of mine please you;
I will rejoice in the Lord.

Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!

John 14:8-17

Philip said to him,

‘Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.’ Jesus said to him,

‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

‘If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.’

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

The organ has four main families of pipes: Diapasons, Flutes, Strings and Reeds. A couple of weeks ago I played pieces using the different trumpet stops (reeds). Last week I played a piece which began with the lowest diapason pipes. Our first Prelude this morning is by William Boyce (1710-1779) played on the diapason pipes. The diapason pipes on the upper manual (the Swell) are I believe from St. Andrew's original organ of 1890. The diapason pipes on the middle keyboard (the Great) have been updated except for the lowest display pipes which are original. The Postlude, entitled simply "Postlude" is a happy little march played on the family of diapason pipes. Johann Cramer (1771-1858) was born in Germany but moved to London at an early age. He became a respected concert pianist, composer and publisher.

Today is Pentecost Sunday and the second Prelude is based on the old 9th century Latin hymn Veni Creator Spiritus (Come Holy Ghost, our souls inspire). The Anthem, by Thomas Attwood (1765-1838), is also based on this text, translated by Bishop John Cosin in 1627.

~Anthem~

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love;
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight;

Anoint and cheer our soilèd face
With the abundance of thy grace;
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where thou art Guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of Both, to be but One;
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song,
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome

The congregation extends a warm welcome to the Rev. Dr. Karen Bach who is leading our worship this morning. Karen has served as ecumenical chaplain at the University of Toronto, and with the Yonge Street Mission. She has also agreed to work with our congregation as Interim Moderator as we seek God's leadership for our church at this time.

Gratitude from Andrew and Béatrice

Words cannot express how moved and grateful we are for the wonderful weekend - the Saturday celebration and reception, the Sunday dedication of the trees, and all the personal words and greetings. We carry with us the faith and friendships grown. And we thank God.

~Andrew and Béatrice

Gratitude from Ed B

Thank you to everyone for their best wishes and the cake to celebrate my 90th birthday. God bless!

Gratitude from Session

A huge thank you to all for your participation in the celebrations on May 28th and 29th. Creating decorations, folding handouts, setting up chairs, pouring tea, writing greetings, and countless other details big and small – everyone had a part in making the event a huge success. Huzzah!

Books In Need of a New Home

Andrew is taking only half of his books with him. The other half are set up in St. Andrew's Hall. Andrew has asked that you offer a new home to as many as you can!

After Church Fellowship Time

As we are adjusting to the "new normal" that guides our social interactions, we are once again serving refreshments in St. Andrew's Hall following the service. Please join us whenever you feel comfortable to do so. You can always grab a beverage and socialize on the church lawn.

Manse Community Outreach

Someone is still needed to supply the entrée for the Supper on June 26. If you would like to volunteer, please call Anne-Marie G.

Imago Dei

Thursday June 9, 4:30 p.m., on Zoom. Contemplative reading, prayer & community in Christ. All welcome. For details, contact Dorothy (dotmessenger@gmail.com)

Mid-Week Worship

Wednesday June 15 & 29, 7:30 p.m. A time of song and prayer in the tradition of the Taizé community. Led by Susanne and Wendy.

200th Anniversary of St. Andrew's

On Sunday, June 12, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will celebrate its 200th anniversary in a Sunday service led by Rev. Malcolm Sinclair. Let us use this opportunity to look back and together, imagine what our future might look like. Participate in this process by sharing your personal memories and hopes for the congregation's future. Submissions will be compiled in a special bulletin insert and emailed. Please email your message and/or photo(s) no later than Wednesday, June 8. Printed copies will be supplied, upon request.

ALSO

Sunday June 5 - Service for QE2 Platinum Jubilee

Today at 4:00 p.m., there will be a special service to commemorate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee at St. George's Anglican Cathedral on King St. All welcome.

MISSION MOMENT

The Central Alberta Shared Ministry initiative is a collaborative partnership that enables support and resource sharing between Knox Presbyterian Church and West Park Presbyterian Church in Red Deer and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Innisfail. Together, the three congregations are embarking on a journey of education about congregational vitality and are developing plans to renew their ministries. The aim of the partnership is to support one another as they work towards congregational health. Once the Shared Ministry has attained stability, the partnership will welcome a new congregation. It is through gifts to Presbyterians Sharing that the Presbytery of Central Alberta is able to experiment with this model of ministry.

Presbyterians Sharing

In 2022, through offerings designated "Mission", members of St. Andrew's Kingston have a goal of contributing $31,849 to the work of Christ through Presbyterians Sharing.
