

Hymns of Praise

Sunday January 22, 2023

#181

All praise to you, O Lord,
who by your mighty power,
did manifest your glory forth in Cana's marriage hour.

You speak, and it is done;
obedient to your word,
the water reddening into wine proclaims the present Lord.

Oh, may this grace be ours,
in you always to live
and drink of those refreshing streams which you alone can give.

So, led from strength to strength, grant us, O Lord, to see the marriage supper of the Lamb,
the great epiphany.

#169 (vs.1,2,4)

(Refrain) He is born! Now the child has come!
Fill all the air with our merry carolling!
Play the pipe, beat the joyful drum!
Hope is born, for the child has come!

Faithful sages through ages long,
prophets sang of the Saviour's coming:
faithful sages through ages long,
prophets sang of the promised dawn. (Refrain)

See what light from his face has shone,
grace and mercy of God revealing;
see what light from his face has shone,
from this child, from the promised one! (Refrain)

Jesus, Sovereign and Holy One,
we adore you, before you kneeling;
Jesus, Sovereign and Holy One,
dwell in us, make our hearts your throne! (Refrain)

#830 – Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
praise him all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

#672

Jesus calls us o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea;
day by day his voice still calls us saying, 'Christian, follow me.'

As of old Saint Andrew heard it by the Galilean lake, turned from home and work and kindred,
leaving all for Jesus' sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store, from each idol that would keep us, saying, 'Christian, love me more.'

In our joys and in our sorrows,
days of toil and hours of ease,
Jesus calls, in cares and pleasures,
'Christian, love me more than these.'

Jesus calls us: by your mercies, Saviour, may we hear your call,
give our hearts in glad obedience,
serve and love you best of all.
