The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil,

for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Responsive Psalm 8

O Lord, our Sovereign,

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

You have set your glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouths of babes and infants

you have founded a bulwark because of your foes,

to silence the enemy and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;

what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.

You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;

you have put all things under their feet,
all sheep and oxen,

and also the beasts of the field,

the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,

whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Sovereign,

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

NOTES FROM THE MUSIC DIRECTOR

Easter is a time when we can enjoy some really good hymns. And if we get tired of those hymns, we can enjoy the many arrangements of those hymns. That is what we have today. The Anthem is a brief arrangement of the 15th century French carol, "O filii et Filiae" or as it is more commonly known, "O Sons and Daughters, Let us Sing" or as our Book of Praise prefers to call it "Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!" (#261).

All of the organ music selections are Choral Preludes, based on Easter hymns. The two Preludes are by German composer Johann Gottfried Walther (1684-1748) who was a relative of J.S. Bach. The Postlude, by Canadian Healey Willan, is based on what is probably the best known Easter hymn and the tune is called simply "Easter Hymn" (#243). It comes from a collection of hymns from 1708 called Lyra Davidica which came from Latin and German sources. The compiler of this collection states in his Preface that it was his intention to introduce "a little freer air than the grave movement of the Psalm-tunes. ... In Germany, where they have abundance of divine songs and hymns, set to short and pleasant tunes, the peasant at his plow, the servants at their labour, the children in the street... make use of these (hymns) for the expression of their mirth; and have no such custom as we unhappily labour under, of ballads and profane songs".

So I encourage you to sing or whistle these happy Easter tunes as you walk down the street, pull your plow or otherwise go about your labours this week.

Anthem – O sons and daughters let us sing

O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven the glorious King.
O'er death and hell rose triumphing
Alleluia! Alleluia!

On this most holy day of days
our hearts and voices, Lord, we raise to thee in jubilation and praise
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Words: Jean Tisserand 15th cent.

Arrangement: Tom Council 2010

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to all who are worshipping with us this week, both in person and online! A special welcome to the Rev. Mark Kotchapaw, Advancement Director with Camp Iawah. Along with his wife Rhonda, Mark has been in pastoral ministry for 38 years; the last 14 years at Bethel Church. While he is currently working part time at Camp Iawah, he is also involved in speaking engagements, coaching, pre-marital and marital counseling. They have three grown children.

We are also very grateful to the Rev. Nancy for chairing our worship service today.

Renovations

During the first 2 weeks of May, the church office and minister's study are getting some necessary repairs and improvements, namely new paint and flooring. To facilitate this work, and accommodate moving furniture etc., the office will be closed from May 1-12. The phone will be monitored, and bulletins printed. We appreciate your patience and understanding and look forward to the refresh!

St. Andrew's S.T.A.Y.S

St. Andrew's STAYS – Social Time After Your Service! We are back to having social time after church, so anyone who would like to help in any way, please check in with Susanne and let her know. You can just bake, or just host the social hour without baking, or help with washing up afterwards. There's a job for everyone! We have a sign-up sheet in St. Andrew's Hall – you can write down what Sunday you would like to help and in what ways you will contribute. Then stay and socialize!
