SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, ‘Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.’

So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days’ walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s walk. And he cried out,

‘Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!’

And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Psalm 62:5-12

For God alone my soul in silence waits;
truly, my hope is in God.

God alone is my rock and my salvation,
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.

In God is my safety and my honour,
my strong rock and my refuge.

Put your trust in God always, O people, pour out your hearts before the One who is your refuge.

Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath,
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.

On the scales they are lighter than a breath,
all of them together.

Put no trust in extortion;
in robbery take no empty pride;
though wealth increase,
set not your heart upon it.

God has spoken once, twice have I heard it,
that power belongs to God.

Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, for you repay all according to their deeds.

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Response to readings

For the word of God in Scripture

For the word of God within us

For the word of God around us

Thanks be to God

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Folks seemed to enjoy the Postlude by Buxtehude last week so I thought some more Buxtehude might be well received. Buxtehude seems to be an international man of mystery because little is known about his early life. Some sources think he was born in a town in Denmark which later became part of Sweden but we are not exactly sure when. He ended up as organist in Lübeck, Denmark, which then became part of Germany. He is sometimes considered Danish and sometimes German. We are also not sure if his first name was Dedrik, Dederich, Dieterich or Dietrich. Most agree that he lived from 1637 to 1707. His father was an organist and probably his teacher. Buxtehude was the most important composer of the North German School of organ playing and one of the most important composers of the 17th century. Unfortunately, much of his music has been lost. The Postlude today is one of his more popular organ works and we enjoy it thanks to Bach's uncle, Johann Christoph Bach, who copied it out before the original was lost. J.S. Bach's cousin composed the first Prelude and his uncle Johann Christoph composed the second Prelude.

It was in North Germany where the extensive use of organ pedal playing was established. This later spread (thanks to people like Bach) to parts south. At the time of Buxtehude, the French were using pedals to a very limited extent and the English were not using pedals at all. Eventually, a full pedal board was the norm for most organs throughout the world. Today's Postlude opens with a very bold statement on the pedals and is a good example of Buxtehude's adventurous style of composition, later influencing Bach, Walther and others in the middle German school. So as we struggle learning the pedal parts in Bach's organ works, we can perhaps blame Buxtehude.

Introit for Epiphany

Behold he appeareth, the Lord and Ruler:
and in his hand, the Kingdom, and power, and dominion..
Give the King thy judgements, O God: and thy righteousness unto the King's Son.

Healey Willan

Anthem – Like as the Hart

Like as the hart desireth the water brooks,
So longeth my soul after Thee, O God.
Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul,
And why art thou so disquieted within me?
O put thy trust, thy trust in God.

Words: (Psalm 42:1,6)

Music: Vincent Novello (1781-1861)

Mission Moment – Presbyterians Sharing

We are God's people, called to serve God with our many gifts. We belong to a denomination that is connected by faith, governance, history and mission. Presbyterians Sharing is one of the ways that Presbyterians across Canada work together to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, sharing God's love and hope in our communities, in Canada and around the world. Gifts to Presbyterians Sharing help build strong congregations, serve vulnerable people, walk with Indigenous people, seek justice and share God's love. When we work together, we can accomplish so much more than we ever could on our own.

Presbyterians Sharing
